Governor Dole Awards Medals to Successful Competitors in Target Contest.

THE Territorial troops celebrated Washington's birth lay yesterday and the parade of the First Regiment, N. G. H., had in it a spirit of patriotism which showed the true the eye of their Commander-in-Chief, Governor Dole, the National Guard were at their best and the multitude ground in front of the armory and upon the streets was not in the least disappointed at its appearance.

Prominent members of the Legislature, headed by Dr. N. Russell, president of the Senate, were present with the Governor and his military staff and expressed their pleasure at the excellent discipline displayed.

At 2 o'clock the troops began assembling in the armory and at 2:30 Colonel Jones gave the command for the formation of the review. The troops by companies marched out of the building and formed by battalions, Company F. under Captain Sam Johnson, having the right of the line. During its preliminary evolutions prior to taking up its position in the battalion front, Captain Johnson's company evoked much favorable comment by its soldierly appearance and its movements, which were characteristic of the discipline of regular troops. The same can be said of Nahara Hopa's company of full-blooded Hawaiians, recently organized. The latter took the eye of the Independent legislators and justly, too, for the men, almost evenly sized, were under perfect control.

Major Zeigler, senior battalion commander, formed the troops for presenance of Governor Dole, accompanied by his private secretary, A. G. Hawes Jr., both wearing frock coats and silk hats, and Captains Pratt, Wall and Christ of Latter Day Saints will hold ser-Ashley, the band under Captain Berger vices on Sunday in the Mililani Hall (rear struck up a national air.
